

PACE

POSITIVE ACTION thru CIVIC ENGAGEMENT

“Breaking the Sound of Silence” 2013 CONFERENCE February 7 • Peoria, Arizona

FEATURED SPEAKER

John Quiñones

Anchor, ABC TV's
“What Would You Do?”,
reporter for ABC News Primetime

Influence of the “New” Media

Michael Ryan • Chris Klein
David Liebowitz • Dan Gillmore

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

Pearl Chang Esau
President & CEO
Expect More Arizona

M. Emily Nottingham, Ph.D.
Personal Story:
“Breaking the Silence”

Managing Civil Discourse - Effective Compromise

Cathy Eden • Will Gonzales • Dr. Thomas Catlaw
Jane Prescott-Smith • Reverend Oscar Tillman

For early registration
or more information,
visit peoriaaz.gov/pace

SPONSORED BY:

PRESENTED BY:

You can make a difference, or change the world!

The city of Peoria and Arizona State University are offering participants the opportunity to learn how to become civically engaged through positive actions and civil discourse. The 2013 PACE Conference - Positive Action through Civic Engagement – will have dynamic speakers and panel discussions which will inspire citizens to get engaged within their communities in Arizona to help government officials make collaborative and informed decisions.

We expect the available registrations to fill up quickly. So, we offering a 10% discount for the first 50 individuals who register, simply enter code: PACEFIRST50!

Go to www.peoriaaz.gov/PACE to register.